July 6, 2010

Montgomery County, Virginia – The U.S. Department of State has announced fees for passport books and cards will increase July 13. Passport book fees for adults will increase from $75 to $110. Passport book fees for children (under 16) will increase from $60 to $80. Passport card fees for adults will increase from $20 to $30. Passport card fees for children (under 16) will increase from $10 to $25.

Acceptance fees (payable to the Montgomery County Circuit Court) have not changed; they remain $25 per applicant.

The Montgomery County Circuit Court Clerk's Office processes passport applications from citizens from 8:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. No appointment is needed. It is recommended that applicants arrive with passport applications completed but not signed. Applicants must also have photo identification (typically a driver's license), proof of citizenship (typically a certified copy of birth certificate), acceptable passport photos, as well as a check or money order to send fees to the U.S. Department of State. For details, go to www.travel.state.gov.

A fee chart and additional details are available at http://travel.state.gov/passport/fees/fees_5079.html.
